

Selected Stories

These twenty-three stories represent the best work of one of the finest and most emotionally revealing writers in America. Andre Dubus treats his characters--a bereaved father stalking his sons killer; a woman crying alone by her television late at night; a devout teenager writing in the coils of faith and sexuality; a fathers story of limitless love for his daughter--with respect and compassion. He turns fiction into an act of witness. Books by Andre Dubus also in Vintage Contemporaries paperback: Dancing After Hours. Like some of the most satisfying storytellers of the past (Dubus has been compared to Chekhov), he is munificent, spinning out whole lifetimes and recounting events from many characters viewpoints. For the lyricism and directness of his language, the richness and precision of his observations and the generosity of his vision, he is among the best.--Village Voice Dubuss characters resemble those of Raymond Carver...but the stories stand alone in their idiosyncratic spiritual cast, occasionally religious, more often expressive of devotion to the people he lives among.--New York Times Book Review
