

Hide My Eyes (A Campion Mystery)

In Hide My Eyes, private detective Albert Campion finds himself hunting down a serial killer in London's theatreland. A spate of murders leaves him with only two baffling clues: a left-hand glove and a lizard-skin letter-case. These minimal clues and a series of peculiar events sets Campion on a race against time that takes him from an odd museum of curiosities hidden in a quiet corner of London to a scrapyard in the East End. Allingham shows her dark edge in Hide My Eyes and evokes the sights, sounds, and inimitable atmosphere of fifties London. This is a stand-alone title within Margery Allingham's Albert Campion series. Observer Allingham has that rare gift in a novelist, the creation of characters so rich and so real that they stay with the reader forever. Sara Paretsky Allingham's characters are three-dimensional flesh and blood, especially her villains.
